

Keep Douglasville Beautiful has embarked on an exciting campaign to construct a military honor garden, dedicated to the brave men, women, and families who have made and continue to make sacrifices to protect our many freedoms.

This is a special opportunity to let our military know that we value and respect their commitment, dedication, and sacrifices. Freedom is not free... we owe a great deal to our brave heroes...yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

Located adjacent to the Robert G. Hunter Memorial in Hunter Park, the Military Honor Garden will be a dynamic addition to the City's public landscapes and will create an inviting space for residents and visitors to recognize and celebrate current and former veterans from our community.

The Military Honor Garden will include granite markers with tributes to the five active service branches, a formal lawn to host small events and allow for active uses, vibrant garden beds with flowering trees, shrubs, and grasses, and private seating areas for contemplation and reflection.

KDB is inviting individuals, groups, and businesses to come together to make this Military Honor Garden a fitting tribute. Our goal is to construct the entire garden using voluntary contributions and grants, not with taxpayer funds.

With your support, this project will reflect the respect and appreciation this community has for our past and present military men, women and families who sacrificed so much for our freedoms.

Please join us at the following levels (monetary or in-kind). All contributions will be recognized:

- Bronze: $500 - $999
- Silver: $1,000 - $9,999
- Gold: $10,000 - $19,999
- Platinum: $20,000 +

Donations at the Bronze level and higher will be permanently recognized on a donor wall at the Douglasville Military Honor Garden.

YES, I want to support the Douglasville Military Honor Garden and honor those who have served.
