Maze and more!!

Welcome to the first Douglasville Activity Book! This book will help kids (just like you!) of all ages learn more about local government. Use your own creativity to complete the puzzles, get through the maze, connect the dots, and create your own city!

You can check your answers by logging onto the City of Douglasville website at www.DouglasvilleGa.gov/ActivityBook. Make sure to submit completed pages from your activity book and receive a complimentary Good Citizen award!

We hope you enjoy the activities and will help us create an Impact That Matters in our community!!

Fun Facts!

1. Douglasville was originally known as Skint Chestnut, after the type of large tree used by Native Americans as a landmark
2. An election was held on the first Saturday in March 1875, and a mayor, treasurer, records (secretary), and marshal were chosen. Thus, began the official history of Douglasville
3. In November 2015, Mayor Rochelle Robinson was elected as the first female and first African-American Mayor
4. Douglasville is the County Seat of Douglas County. This means that Douglasville is the governmental center of Douglas County
